

The St. Catharines Rowing Alumni Association

October 2022

Well fall has arrived on the island, sitting on the back patio looking at the fall colors, can't find a better view anywhere.

Crews still on the water, Brock, SCRC and Ridley, 3 regattas left to go on the course, Brock Invite, OUAA Championship, and Canadian University Championship.

The Alumni has had a busy summer with our patio, rentals and regattas. Thanks to all the members who helped out over the course of the summer. We hope to see you out at our regular meetings this fall.

Thanks to Barb for looking after our rentals; it's a thankless job that takes lots of time. If you know of anyone interested in renting the hall, Barb is the person to call. Contact info on our website.

Thanks to Jane Lockhart for the ongoing commitment to our Bingo, Jane will be reminding members of their shift schedule.

Thanks to Jasper for the golf pools and a great tournament in September, as well as his organization with Chris to make our summer patio a success again.

Also, thanks to the Alumni BBQ team who stepped up to the plate on numerous occasions and delivered the best burgers and dogs on the island.

Over the course of the spring, summer and early fall, the executive met on a regular basis to discuss on-going business as needed. Thanks to Brian, Wayne and the rest of the executive for keeping the Club on the right track.

This upcoming fall is a busy rental season-- besides 3 weddings, we have on the 23rd of October a book reading, story telling evening with Danny Peart, an old port boy. I understand it will be quite an evening according to Danny Atkinson and Mark Wilson. Tickets available at the door. Cash bar.

This fall will also be the ANNUAL CLEAN-UP DAY, stay tuned for date and time once the leaves are down. Wayne will be watching the leaves fall and will giving us a heads up as to when.

Hope to see you all out for our next meeting Friday October 14 -Bar opens at 6.30, Meeting starts 7:30 pm

Yours in rowing, Don Baker
